YOUR WEEKEND

We've got street food (of course), a purple cow and a grown-up Easter egg hunt for you

As worn on Madonna's Blood Ambition tour

GAULTIER RETROSPECTIVE

The Fashion World Of Jean Paul Gaultier From The Sidewalk To The Catwalk explores the French designer's inspiration, designs and collaborations (the conical bras and corsets Madonna wore are on display). Until 25 August; times vary; £14.50; Silk Street, EC2Y

Things will get very messy

STREET FOOD FESTIVAL

The weekly Urban Food Fest street food night market launches on Saturday. Running until the end of June, it will take over Euro Car Parks in Shoreditch with street food trucks, bars and music. 12 April-21 June; 5pm-midnight every Saturday; free; Euro Car Parks, 162-175 Shoreditch High Street, E1

Admire the cow from the outside

UDDERBELLY IS BACK

Launching today, the inflatable purple upturned cow (AKA Udderbelly) is back until July. Highlights include stand-up from Gina Yashere and Vikki Stone and musical improv from Fringe favourites Showstopper: The Improvised Musical. 10 April-13 July; times and prices vary; Udderbelly, Southbank Centre, SE1

Oil paintings in a cartoon-like style

ELLA KRUGLYANSKAYA

Latvian-born, New York-based artist Ella Kruglyanskaya launches her first solo show outside the US. Her paintings depict exaggerated women, focusing on friendships and sexuality. The artist will be in conversation on Saturday. 11 April-8 June; times vary; free; Studio Voltaire, 1a Nelson's Row, SW4

The cast will roam the department store

EGG HUNT

At this adults-only egg hunt, you'll be thrown into the world of immersive theatre, interacting with actors on the hunt for a Baileys Easter egg with brioche soldiers and Baileys Chocolat Luxe. 19 April; midday-9pm; £25 with six-course meal, book on 08454-639558 or email; Harvey Nichols, 109-125 Knightsbridge, SW1X
